PROFILE

Lauren is a global valuation development and strategic operations leader, highly experienced spearheading agile investment management strategies and tactical asset allocation. As the founder and CEO of MINLEIGH LLC, a healthcare focused strategic advisory firm, Lauren has proven her skills in deal sourcing, negotiation, and structuring, along with a strong expertise in due diligence and integration. Previously, Lauren co-founded Tokum Capital Management, a global healthcare fund, and successfully managed its merger with Perella Weinberg Partners. She has also managed healthcare investment portfolios at reputable institutional firms such as Pequot and Kingdon Capital. Lauren's experience as a director of public and private companies further enhances her strategic perspective on operations and strategy.

Beyond her professional commitments, Lauren serves on the business review board of the Alzheimer's Drug Discovery Foundation and the Robertson Therapeutic Development Fund at the Rockefeller University, demonstrating her dedication to the advancement of healthcare.

Lauren holds a PhD from Columbia University Vagelos College of Physicians & Surgeons, an MBA from Columbia Business School, and a BA with honors from Wellesley College.

With her extensive industry experience and strong business acumen, Lauren offers credible guidance and innovative strategies for companies seeking growth and value creation.
